

What is Shine Brite Day Camp?

Safe Haven's Shine Brite Day Camp is a three day long day camp focused on children who have been exposed to domestic violence. The vision of the camp is to help children find their sense of self, build confidence and overcome trauma. These traits often get buried as children also go into survival mode when there is trauma around them. Shine Brite will provide guidance and activities to help kids heal with the support of adult volunteers in a fun and safe environment.
